Pst. Hero Udenyi

We bring you greetings from The Prophetic Voice Magazine Team in Jesus' name. With great joy in our hearts, we welcome you to another month of the supernatural as we celebrate God's love and faithfulness.

Be assured God loves you, and nothing can separate you from His love (Romance 8:35).

We believe that the Prophetic remains the vehicle with which God conveys His message to humanity through the forth-telling of the written or foretelling of divine agenda towards unravelling mysteries. The prophetic has many folds but one ultimate purpose: equipping the Church for the work of ministry. The whole plan of God for creation has been the focus of Jesus's ministry, and we believe the prophetic is meant to give effect to that agenda. Therefore, the understanding of the prophetic is fundamental to the fulfilment of the same.

In this edition, we are looking at prophecy. The substantive is based on some of the teachings of Prophet Richard Amoaye. In this edition, the substantive explores whether the gift of prophecy is still relevant in a contemporary church. In addition, you will also find other articles woven around the topic of the prophetic, Prophecy and the prophet.

Of particular delight is the real people, real testimonies page. Make sure you check this out as you will be encouraged by a real life encounter of God's saving grace and how the power of the prophetic tackled the issues of their life by giving them advantage over adversities.

Once again, we welcome you to the August edition of the Prophetic Voice Magazine. We pray that as you read through this magazine, God will open your eyes not only to see the truth but to know the truth. May you be introduced to true freedom in the power of the Holy Spirit, and always we welcome your feedback.

THE HOLY SPIRIT EXPRESSES HIMSELF IN MANY WAYS TO CREATE THE NECESSARY ENVIRONMENT FOR THE GROWTH OF THE CHURCH.

If there is any time that the church of Christ needs a revival, a renewal of its' prophetic mandate, it is now. More than ever, the world is losing faith in Christianity because Christianity has ceased providing the options that the world so badly needs. More people are relinquishing their faith in God through Christ because the church has lost its' power to impart in a fallen, broken world. The mainstream church today has denied the power and held on to a form of religion as the principalities of the church have decided to organise the church into a form of religion and remove her from its source of power for impact.

The church is not an organisation but an organism; therefore, it has life and ought to grow until it becomes a gigantic organism that covers the whole world, living and breathing the will of God upon the earth. But what we see today is weak, dying, and an apologetic church that has continually become impotent in the face of immense pressure from the world it should conquer for the glory of Christ. Church fellows have let Christ sleep in the ship and therefore have no genuine fellowship, and so miracles, signs and wonders are being faked, so impacts are false. These things come naturally when the real Christ, the anointing of the Holy Spirit, is present and active.

The Diagnosis

Surface knowledge of the church's history shows that this is not the first time the church has slipped into a deep slumber. And it will take another awakening of the sign gifts to get the church back on its feet. As stated before, the church is an organism, and the heart of this organism is the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit expresses Himself in many ways to create the necessary environment for the growth of the church. So, when the church jettisoned the Holy Spirit and became an organised body of religion like any other religion, she chose the fate that befalls all other religions, becoming a corporate organisation.

The church is choking to

Decoding The Mystery of Excellence

By Richard Amoaye

...Decoding offers thought provoking comparative examinations of Joseph and other giants of the faith. Not only that, but the book also asks some probing questions about personalities we have often read about. For example, have you ever wondered why Isaac was blind in his old age when this was not part of the promise and blessing from God? Or have you ever questioned how it is that his own wife and son would successfully deceive him into blessing Jacob? These are just a handful of the intriguing questions posed by Prophet Richard throughout the book.

PROPHECY AND THE CONTEMPORARY CHURCH

death right now because she is out of life as she has decided to live and play games like the world where it has no business. The church does not need the world; it is the world that needs the church. The world wants to see the God of the Church in the demonstrations of His power for the healing and salvation of a broken and dying world.

The church without the prophetic is based on history and the vain philosophy of men. At best, she becomes a big organisation based on corporate rules and principles and therefore subject to corporate laws to the disadvantage of the laws of the Spirit. What can set the church aside for the level of influence and affluence she must exhibit is the sign gifts of the holy spirit, the chief of which is the gift of prophecy. The church is the movement of the Holy Spirit to influence the world until the kingdom of this world becomes the kingdom of his dear son. And the Holy Spirit has chosen that He will work through human vessels, and one significant way to achieve this is through the prophetic.

What Is Prophecy?

The Catholic Encyclopedia defines prophecy as “the foreknowledge of future events, though it may sometimes apply to past events of which there is no memory, and to present hidden things which the natural light cannot know of reason (www.newadvent.org/cathen/12473a.htm).”

It is also defined as a “miracle of knowledge, a declaration or description or representation of something future, beyond the power of human sagacity to foresee, or conjecture (www.biblestudytools.com/dictionary/prophecy/).”

Prophecy is the accessing of the supernatural and revealing the thoughts and intents of the supernatural in the natural or the unveiling of the divine mind concerning a soul, a community, and a nation or a group of people - Prophet Richard Amoaye.

Prophecy is the total of the means divinely inspired and designed to convey God's current mind and acts amid humanity. Prophecy breathes the freshness of the mind of God upon the logos of God by His Holy Spirit and is delivered by an ordained vessel for the edification of the people of God.

Why Prophecy?

Prophet Richard Amoaye, in explaining the relevance of prophecy in the end time dispensation, argued that prophecy is very important in

PROPHECY AND THE CONTEMPORARY CHURCH

“Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” - Matthew 26:41

...we are in the nights of the seasons of the earth/world as these are the last days (Matthew 25:1-13). However, no one knows how long the night will be, so prophecy is used to guide and guard the church through this night season...

the knowledge of the times that we are in. In his teaching, he explained that according to (Mathew 26:41 and Luke 21:36), Jesus urged His disciples to watch and pray so that they were not caught unaware.

The dictionary.com defined the word watch as:

1. look at attentively over a period of time.
2. Observe, view, look at, eye, gaze at, stare at, gape at, peer at.

www.amoaye.org

3. exercise care, caution, or restraint.
4. be careful about/of, exercise care/caution/restraint about.
5. remain awake for the purpose of religious observance.

The above notwithstanding, the word watch in the context of use by Jesus implies the alertness of a guard at night. The night watchman must be more cautious than the daytime watchman. The night compared to daytime, is different and more difficult because it will take more effort and a unique means of light and sight to see the night. At night there may be no indications of an enemy attack until it happens. Therefore, a hyper-vigilant watchman is needed to alert the people of impending danger at night.

According to Prophet Amoaye, we are in the nights of the seasons of the earth/world as these are the last days (Matthew 25:1-13). However, no one knows how long the night will be, so prophecy is used to guide and guard the church through this night season.

In this end time, Jesus warned that the Church would be easily distracted by the physical and would be caught unaware, so there is a need for diligence and discipline in the things of the kingdom. There is, therefore, a need for the watchmen who are specially gifted by the Holy Spirit with the grace to perceive and receive from God current heavenly reports that give the saint advantage over the plots of the enemy as it was in the days of Elisha the prophet in (2Kings 6: 8- 12).

Prophet Amoaye continues to argue in line with the preceding that the prophecy is not a luxury but a necessity and more so in this end-time for the execution of the mind of God and the establishment of light amid so much darkness (Isaiah 60:2).

In his further explanation, he posited that we live in the material realm, but God lives in the spiritual realm. The material realm is called the visible realm, and the spiritual realm is called the invisible or supernatural realm. God is invisible, though He is only invisible to the natural realm

but very visible to the spiritual realm where He lives. Prophecy, therefore, is reaching into the spiritual realm and receiving the mind of God through the sights and sounds of the Holy Spirit and translating the same as the spoken words of God through the act of forth telling the scriptures or foretelling events based on the scriptures to equip the saints for the manifestation of the power of God which is the work of ministry.

He said that the prophetic in dimension and relevance has shifted from what it was in the Old Testament times. However, it is still a means God uses to equip the church with the eyes and ears needed to see and hear what divinity is doing and saying. Buttressing his points, he gave an example of Jesus when He declared that whatever he was saying and doing was the same thing He heard His Father saying and doing (John 5:19). Prophecies release to the saints in the natural what is obtainable in the supernatural so that the saint would be guided and guarded against the devil's wiles and stand firm in faith occupying until the Lord comes (Ephesians 6:10-16).

Conclusion

Prophecy is the most potent weapon in the hands of the church to be used to undermine the devices of the evil one in this end time. It is not surprising that the enemy knowing this fact, has also devised a tactic to undermine the prophetic in the church today. Prophecy is in the very nature and the strength of the Church.

“And by a prophet, the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved” (Hosea 12:13). Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise (Galatian 4:28). It is essential to know that the church is spiritual Israel. And if we agree on this, then does it not go to reason that what is true of natural Israel should be true of spiritual Israel? The church, like natural Israel, was also born out of prophecy (Joel 2:28, Matthew 16:18, Acts 1:8, 2:1-5). And if the Church was also born out of prophecy, then is it logical that it would be preserved by prophecy like natural Israel?

Furthermore, Moses said, “I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!” (Numbers 11:29). Paul confirmed, “I wish that all of you could speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues

I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy” (1 Corinthians 14:5).

A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. (John 8:17). “...at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established (Deuteronomy 19:15). This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established (2 Corinthians 13:1)

In the light of the above scriptures, it is therefore established that in the contemporary church, prophecy is not a luxury but a necessity not only to edify but to equip the saints to an advantage in the ministry of resisting the devil in these evil days (1 Timothy 1:18).

Therefore, the conviction and submission of Prophet Richard Amoaye are that, like every other gift by the Holy Spirit, the gift of prophecy still subsists and must be accorded its due importance in the contemporary church. Because the gift of prophecy, using the other vehicles of the fivefold ministry is meant to counter demonic agendas in this fallen world.

My car had rolled three times before stopping on the side of the road. One of the witnesses standing there said, "You are very lucky". The paramedics lifted me to put me on a stretcher, and that is when I started experiencing unbearable pain. They administered painkillers, but the pain was still unbearable. have passed out when the car was rolling. I only remember seeing a very fast truck behind me through my rear-view mirror. When I was in the hospital, two messages were whispered into my ear, "There is no power above God's Power", and "It is important to stay under the covering of your church".

The hospital conducted their regular scans and x-rays. They informed me that I had no fractures. After five days, I was discharged from the hospital, and the only pain I had was the internal bruises from being thrown around when the car was rolling. God saved me and gave me another chance to live. To him be the glory and honour.

Two weeks before the accident happened, Papa had prophesied that an accident was going to occur, but the individual would not be harmed. I did not realise that he was talking about me. Papa came to the hospital and prayed for me while I was under observation. He left me with a word of encouragement. The car was severely damaged, and it was declared a write-off. When my daughter opened the car, she retrieved most of the items in the car, including reading glasses that were not affected by the accident. I thank God for the grace upon God's Power Ministries and upon the visionary, our father, Prophet Richard Amoaye. I am blessed to be part of the GPM family. It is a house of breakthroughs and miracles. To God be all the glory.

Tragedy

A Different Type of Cancer

Most of the harm we experience after an accident happens beneath the surface and is not easily identified. The emotional and mental harm one may experience due to a physical disadvantage could outweigh the physical limitations of that disadvantage...

BY THE GHOST POTTER

Sometimes when tragedy strikes, it is easy to look only at the face value of it. We call it an unfortunate event and some call a Black Swan event. Getting involved in an accident isn't as simple as days off work, treatment and recovery time. There is always more than meets the eye and the consequences sometimes may exceed the physical damage.

Black Swan

A black swan is an unpredictable event that is beyond what is normally expected of a situation and has potentially severe consequences.

It's not always obvious what a tragedy can do to a man. There is a saying that "Tragedy can change a man". Why is that so? Most of the harm happens beneath the surface and is not easily identified. The emotional and mental harm one may experience due to a physical disadvantage could outweigh the physical limitations of that disadvantage. Not being able to do the things one enjoyed could lead to depression. Depression may affect close relationships. Affected relationships may lead to discontentedness and separation. It brings with it bitterness, sadness, and feelings of loneliness. Loneliness brings more depression, and the cycle continues.

When one is connected to the heavens, to God; there is a constant flow of information and provisions. The Holy Spirit is our comforter. Through prayer, one understands their identity and one lives a life which aligns to God's purposes for them. The enemy is aware of this, and his purpose is to break that line of communication. He wants you to remain vulnerable and available for him to use you to bring down others. Tragedy strikes, not to get you a few sick days, but to start a series of events which would lead to that breakdown in communication with God.

In the book of Job, we find a story where tragedy strikes Job and his friends try to get him to curse God. Job was a prosperous man of outstanding piety. Satan acts as an agent provocateur to test whether Job's piety is rooted merely in his prosperity. But faced with the appalling loss of his possessions, his children, and finally his own health, Job still refuses to curse God. Three of his friends then arrive to comfort him, and at this point the poetic dialogue begins. The poetic discourses—which probe the meaning of Job's sufferings and the way he should respond—consist of three cycles of speeches that contain Job's disputes with his three friends and his conversations with God. Job proclaims his innocence and the injustice of his suffering, while his "comforters" argue that Job is being punished for his sins. Job, convinced of his faithfulness and uprightness, is not satisfied effects and make it difficult to manage. Your bible becomes like health insurance. The more of it you have, the more you are covered and the only viable cure is that connection to God, our eternal surgeon.

Tragedy is like a cancer. If left untreated, it continues to grow and spread, destroying vital parts of you which power your livelihood. It can weaken you enough to pull you away from your maker.

The prophetic is not about predicting tragedies or foretelling the future. Its about tapping into the power God Has granted us to prevent tragedies or anything which will attempt to separate us from Him. It's about declarations and assurances. About standing firm before you need to stand firm. Attacks may not be avoidable but we can position ourselves to live through them through prophecy and the prophetic. They say prevention is better than cure, the Prophetic is the Prevention side of it. While our focus is not on prevention entirely, it is more focused on growing stronger so that when tragedy strikes, you are already fortified against it. God Bless.

with this explanation. The conversation between Job and God resolves the dramatic tension—but without solving the problem of undeserved suffering. The speeches evoke Job's trust in the purposeful activity of God in the affairs of the world, even though God's ways with man remain mysterious and inscrutable.

– Summary by Britannica.com

The story of Job displays a situation where 'undeserved' tragedy strikes. Job practically loses everything, and it is the hope of the enemy that through this, Job will curse God and break that line with God. In this generation, none of us could deal with such a loss like Job's. Job's faithfulness is unquestionable as he stands firm on the fact that God knows what's best for him and God will never fail him. His friends are like voices in his head which try and shift blame onto him, attempting to convince him that he deserves all which happened to him. It is easy to believe that when tragedy hits, we deserve it for who we are or have been. It is easy to think it is some form of punishment for falling short. Sometimes even our own friends and family bring about that idea. It is not that we deserve it, it is an attack...

“So that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.” – 2 Corinthians 2:11

Tragedy is like a cancer. If left untreated for a while, it grows and spreads until it weakens you enough to pull you away from your maker. Having a weak support group will be like having a weak immune system. It will accelerate the
