Pst. Hero Udenyi

We greet you from the Prophetic Voice Magazine desk and welcome you into the last quarter of this incredible year, 2022, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

We are aware of the pressures that the world is under now, but we believe that God is the only one that can bring treasure out of the pressures of life and unto that God, we commit you.

In the next few months, we shall consider the word as the theme, and our aim is to espouse people to the word and the word to the people. The operative tool for creation was the word, and the same word is still the force that sustains the world. We believe that the word is a gift from God given to humans as a tool to use in recreating the world we desire.

In this edition, we begin to consider 'the word', what it is and what it portends generally. However, there are some other side attractions such as interviews with great minds. Of particular delight is the real people, real testimonies corner. It is always amazing to see how God intervenes in the lives of people from all walks of life. Please read these amazing articles, interviews, and testimonies; there is undoubtedly something to learn.

Once again, we welcome you to the October edition of The Prophetic Voice Magazine. We pray that as you read through, God will open your eyes not only to see the truth in 'the word' but to know the truth and be introduced to true freedom in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Your feedback is always welcome.
God richly bless you.

The Word

By Pastor Hero Udenyi

“Without the Word, there is no language, and without language, there is hardly any means of communication.”

What would the world be like without the Word? That would be unimaginable because communication is an integral part of creation; indeed, life would be very dull and frustrating without it. Creations, and especially humans, are creatures of companionship and communication and the breakdown of these two is the breakdown of life as it is known. While there are many ways to communicate, speaking is the most used. Whenever we speak, we speak in languages, and every language is made up of units of words. Without the word, there is no language, and without languages, there is hardly any means of communication.

THE NATURE OF WORDS

Words could be seamless but could provoke anger and incite a war. Words could be used to invoke negative or positive emotions. Words could conjure love and could also invoke hatred. It is a veritable tool of unity and also disunity. Words can be used to promote the truth or used to nurture falsity. Words are used to capture the past and also project into the future. With words, we can describe the beauty of the world around us. Words are like the brush in the hands of the artist, and with them, we can paint pictures of our fantastic imaginations. The Word is a gift given to us by divinity to facilitate our living on the earth. But what is the word?

We communicate mainly through words, therefore it is important what we do with words. When we use words, we are acting out our divinity because the first thing known of God was that He spoke words and the words He said became. (Genesis 1: 3) "And God said, let there be light: and there was light." So, we noticed in the whole of genesis chapter one that God was speaking things into being, and they became. The psalmist would testify of this in (Psalm 33:6) "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; all the host of them by the breath of His mouth". From the preceding, it is inferred that the word can be a creative force at our disposal if adequately articulated. The word is so vital that it can reveal a person's identity.

Our spiritual father, Prophet Richard Amoaye, was teaching recently about the word, and he opined that the words of a man could reveal certain things about the person. In the teaching, he posited that one must not be moved by the negative words of men and the enemy but by the word of God through faith. He said a faith-driven word is premised on who God is and what He has said. He said that for the word to bear fruit, the words must not be fraudulent but accurate and therefore powerful because the one who has said the words is faithful.

"The Word is a gift given to us by divinity"

The Word

He noted that the word reveals certain things about the person, some of which are:

1. The words spoken reveal the person's spiritual state.

In the book of Numbers, chapter thirteen, when Moses sent the spies to spy on the promised land and report back, the people came back with great fruit, but in chapter fourteen, when they heard the words that lacked faith, their faith failed them, and their words re-

THE WORD

Noah heard the Word of God instructing him to build an ark; though it was senseless in that given circumstances to do such a thing, he chose to allow the word he heard from God to be his atmosphere vealed their true spiritual state. They did not believe in the word that God spoke to them but were instead after things, so when they heard other words contrary to God's words, their actual spiritual state was revealed.

2. The words spoken reveal the spiritual climate.

If you surround yourself with people who always speak ill of your future, it could clog your advancement in the future. (Psalm 107:10 – 11) "Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of God and contemned the counsel of the most High: Therefore, he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help". When the word of God is rejected, bondage is the result. You may be nothing today, but the words you accept, believe, and speak today will set you up tomorrow. Noah heard the word of God instructing him to build an ark; though it was senseless in that given circumstances to do such a thing, he chose to allow the word he heard from God to be his atmosphere rather than the negativity of the people around him. He built around himself a positive climate motivated by the words of God. What people say about you does not matter, but what you say about yourself could make or destroy you. When you work as a response to the word of God by faith, you do so very little for so much.

3. Your word steers your life.

The direction of your life is known by the words you have given your ears to. The Bible records in the book of (Romans 10:17) that faith comes by hearing the word of God. And when we hear the word of God, we must begin to speak not based on what we see or feel anymore but on what God has said. Joshua was a man moved by the word of God and based his actions on what God had said and not what men were saying. The word of God steered his faith and life. In (Joshua 24:15-16) "And if it seems evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you

CONCLUSIONS

We must not waste our words without paying attention because words are not just words; words are powerful. The Words we speak not only create an atmosphere of positivism but go ahead of us and create the future that we will eventually feature in. Words are the seeds of this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” Questions of faith must not reveal fear but faith. The word of God steers increased faith. Your words can undermine the power of the Holy Spirit and therefore jeopardise the will and the work of God in you; if it is not steered or motivated by the word of God.

our tomorrow’s fruits as rendered in (Proverbs 18:20 - 21) “A man’s belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.” Words are so important that our word reflects the revelations we have received from the word of God, which He has spoken and written. It is this revelation that provokes the faith that gives an advantage over the challenges of life; (Romans 10:17) “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God”.

Our words do not disappear but go into the atmosphere where they interact with other forces to become manifest. Indeed, words are eternal; therefore, they are eternally shaping and reshaping the world. Words are so important to man and divinity to the extent that we will be held responsible for every word we have ever spoken while alive upon the face of the earth. Jesus the other day was teaching and made a profound statement on the importance of the word when they said them on the Day of Judgment, for it is said, “Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words, thou shalt be condemned” (Mt. 12:36 - 37). This teaching of Jesus Christ is one of His most important Bible teachings, yet the least understood teachings. The last judgement shall be a judgement of words against words. It shall be a judgement of the words spoken by men based on the standard of the word of God. How much of your words coheres with the word of God? Positive words spoken in line with the words of God have tremendous power to create and recreate circumstances to conform to the will of God as it is written in the Bible. God does not judge us; Jesus said, “I came not to judge the world, but to save the world” (John 12:47). But we are being judged by our words and will finally be judged on the last day by ‘the word’.

When we correctly understand the potency of our common words, we will use our words more carefully and purposefully. Whatever can be seen comes into being by God’s spoken word; (Hebrews 11:3) – “Through faith, we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear”.

It is interesting to note that the potency of words has not diminished. As it was when God spoke it for the first time in creation, so shall it be for eternity, as confirmed in (Matthew 24:35) “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away”. One thing that succeeds all human is their words; think about it, the only eternal memory you will ever leave behind is in your words. What are you saying now?

PRISCILLA GWANZURA

I found out that my work contract was ending and they weren't planning on renewing it. So I started looking for a new job in the middle of June. I thought that if I started earlier, I would definitely find something by the time that my contract was due to end. I also had plans to travel on the 1st of August and I wanted to make sure that I had secured employment before travelling for my brother's wedding.

I spent most of June applying for jobs but did not receive any correspondence. July came and I received no calls until probably a week before my contract was due to end. I had an interview with a different department at my current employment and they said that everything had gone well, but they couldn't then offer me a job because someone had already made contact with the clients. Due to this, the senior manager ruled out that since someone has really made contact with the client, they didn't want to then give the clients the runaround. They gave the position to the person that had already made contact with the clients. They also mentioned that they heard I was a good employee and would like to keep me on board. One of the managers who interviewed me made a recommendation for me with HR anyway.

My contract was terminated on the 21st of July and I was now sitting at home from the 22nd, still applying for jobs. A few days later, towards the end of July, I had one interview that was promising. I had the interview and I was successful with the company named. Working for them meant I was going to take a pay cut of at least 15,000 and I thought that was too much. I was trying to get my documents together and then on the Wednesday before I left, I received an email from another company asking to interview me. I responded and we were able to have a phone conversation. The recruitment officer then told me that the interview would be held on a Friday on Microsoft teams.

THE GOD OF PROVISIONS On Friday at 12:00 I had my interview with them and was good. It was easy to talk to them, the people that were interviewing me and it seemed very hopeful. I don't want to get my hopes up because I wasn't too sure about the salary and whether they would really give me the job. So after the interview ended at about 1PM, the recruiter called me, just to see how I felt about the interview. I told him it was good and I didn't feel too stressed out. He wished me all the best.

He called me again at about quarter to 1:45PM and he said, he had just spoken to the managers and they were really impressed with the way the interview went and that they were happy to offer me a permanent position with them. They would be sending me the paperwork if I was still interested. I was very happy and couldn't believe it. They had had offered me the job in 2 hours. That afternoon recruitment had registered me and some basic paperwork was sent to me. They sent me some of the paperwork that needed to be completed, police checks and I completed it.

Before I left to go to Cape Town on the 1st of August, I received my contract, which stated that I had been offered a position, a full time position with the company and I would be starting on the 18th of August which was two days after I had arrived back from my trip.

My testimony is that I was so worried that I wouldn't get a job and I even went to see Papa at some point, telling him that my contract was ending. I told him I was worried that would be unemployed. I'm a single mother and I did not have any other sources of income. If I didn't work, how would I look after myself? How would I look after my daughter? All Papa said was, "it's fine. It is well, it's going to be fine." And I left office thinking, but why would he say it's fine when it's not fine? I had no job, I had no prospects that seemed good for me and I was stressed. My contract had ended and I hadn't been offered a job. At night, all I could think about was what's going to happen if I didn't find a job? How would I pay rent? How would I buy food? How would I afford to pay for school fees for my daughter? That's all I could think about. And when I got the job, I told him. He said he told me not to worry because the job was there. God would work it out for me.

CELEBRATING A LEADER AND A WOMAN SPURRED BY THE WORD

IMPACTFUL

This October there will be an Apostolic conference in Sydney (Australia) and Christchurch (New Zealand). A common denominator to both conferences would be one bold and resolved woman whose birthday we also get to celebrate in this month of October – Pastor Patrice Amoaye. She is the Executive Pastor of God’s Power Ministries (GPM), the author of All that I am: Becoming the best you before your Boaz and the founder of Resolved Woman, a community that speaks to the strength, power and grace God has given women.

Having grown up in Sydney Australia as a pastor’s child and having been privy to living life in ministry, Pastor Patrice was determined to chart her own path. She admits to having once thought and believed that her purpose in life was outside of the church. God had other plans and now she finds herself wearing the hat of a pastor in addition to being a wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend.

Pastor Patrice loves the word of God, and she preaches and teaches it with boldness. She believes that connecting to God and finding yourself in Him is the genesis of an impactful life, and from these flows everything else. When it comes to the word of God, a consistent theme in her messages has been that it is central and necessary to the believer’s journey - be it in guiding one’s prayers or bolstering one’s faith.

Article

by Eugenia Marembo

"The word of God that cannot transform you, cannot elevate you" – Patrice Amoaye

Where time and opportunity have been afforded her, she has been intentional and always chosen the path of truth and transparency to encourage and inspire people from all walks of life.

In one message she titled, "Where does your power lie?", she stated that our knowledge of God (gained through the word) and our actioning of His word is what gives us power. It was somewhat encouraging to hear that :

1. the potency of our prayers and walk lies in our prayers being aligned to the word of God, which is why we should not be overfamiliar with the word or let our disposition dilute the word.
2. we can never rise above the knowledge of God. Which is why repetition of the word is important. Repetition should not diminish the word, it should reveal a new dimension of God and grow your faith
3. our actions and exploits are directly proportional to our knowledge of His word, which is why it is important for us to be watchful of our attitude towards the word.

Not only does Pastor Patrice Preach and teach the word with grace, humility and an inspiring reverence for God, she strives to be a doer of the word. In living out the latter, she has continued to invest herself and share with many women from all walks of life through the Resolved Woman platform. She believes that God designed and expertly crafted each woman for impact and she continues to encourage women to be firmly rooted in God and His word.

As we welcome October, not only do we give thanks for God's unending love for us, we also give thanks for the life of Pastor Patrice. Her love and reverence for God, His word and His ways continues to inspire and spur many on.

Pastor Patrice, The Inspiring Greatness Team celebrates and honours you. Our prayer is that God grants you many more fulfilling and rewarding years! We are excited about what God is doing and the many lives that will be enriched because you said yes to the call of God!

New Season Encounter Conference

Interview with Apostle Peter

Light Of All Nations Ministry in New Zealand will be hosting one of their most anticipated conferences in this generation. In this season of The Supernatural, one can expect the move of God to be mightier than ever. Inspiring Greatness had the opportunity to meet the man behind Light Of All Nations ministry for a brief interview regarding this upcoming conference and we are pleased to present it to you here.

What is the conference about?

Apostle Peter: I mean, this conference is a new conference. New Season Weekend. So much has been going on over the past few years because of the coronavirus and the people have been discouraged. People have lost their loved ones and people have been through some challenges. But I believe it's a new season to bring up families, to bring hope to individuals. It is time to let them know that no matter what season you find yourself, every season can change.

There are four seasons in a year, summer, winter, spring and then Autumn. It maybe somebody's dry season. The conference is designed to give us a new season, financially, spiritually, and above all, to know Jesus, more and more.

It is a restoration of souls, families and changing generations because we believe that if we can touch the family, we can touch a generation. It has been a hard time for families after recovery from the COVID 19 coronavirus.

Who is the conference for?

Apostle Peter: The conference is for everybody. For people from all walks of life. Families, single mothers, single fathers, business people addicted people, whatever class you find yourself, this conference is for you.

What makes this conference different? What makes it unique?

Apostle Peter: I guess what makes it unique is that after COVID 19, my father in the Lord has not been to New Zealand. We usually have this conference every year but due to the circumstances surrounding the pandemic, we were not allowed to travel to Australia and my father was not allowed to travel to New Zealand. It has been a long time, about two or three years making everybody highly expectant for what the Lord is about to do. I believe that people are ready and its going to be an awesome time in the presence of the Lord. I believe the uniqueness lies in the waiting people have been doing.

Essentially celebrating a new season?

Apostle Peter: Yes. For example,

let's say you order a shoe from Dubai or the shoe from America and they told you that it's going to arrive in ten days. After ten days you haven't seen the pair of shoes and then it ends up arriving in two years time. Finally the waiting is over and it removes the frustrations from the wait. So this makes it different from other conferences.

Why conferences? What is the purpose of Conferences?

Apostle Peter: Especially for us, we do conferences because we at Light Of All Nations believe in changing families and changing generations. So the reason for conferences is not just only for a particular group of people. It's not only for a church. It is for the body of Christ. It gives opportunity for every denomination to be able to come and experience another dimension of God's glory because everybody is unique.

There are some things somebody else cannot do that another person can do and it's like not everybody is a doctor, not everybody is a chef, not everybody is a midwife. The same thing exists in the realm of the spirit. Conferences give us an opportunity to embrace the uniqueness of this and be able to realize that its all about Jesus Christ. Its all about Jesus, and through that uniqueness, lives will be changed, families will be changed , restoration will take place , healing will take place, miracle signs and wonders and above all, the word of God will help us draw closer to Jesus.

What are one or two testimonies which have stood out from previous conferences?

Apostle Peter: One testimony that stood out to us is this one: There was a lady who came to our church and she attended such a conference. What happened was that she had a tumor in her stomach and after one of those conferences she went back to the doctors and was told the tumor had changed to a baby. They previously had told her it was a tumor and after the conference they checked for the tumor but found a baby. They thought maybe the machine was wrong but, we know that the machine was fine. How can you say someone she has a tumor then a few weeks later say its a baby? New Zealand and Australia are Western countries, mordenised countries where these machines are highly reliable and well maintained. This testimony stands out to us and another testimony that stands out for us was my father prophesied to a girl during a similar conference. She attended the conference but her brother was not in the conference. It was prophesied that her brother will have an accident but he would recover. Unfortunately her brother had a serious accident where his family passed away but the brother was in the ICU recovering. Through the prophetic words released, there was a supernatural intervention over her brother. These are the things we are expecting because it is the year of the supernatural and we believe there are going to be supernatural encounters.

How can someone prepare themselves for this upcoming conference?

Apostle Peter: One of the ways to prepare yourselves is to fast. Fasting is not to try to make God move. Fasting is a place of reflecting, meditating, preparing with prayer, building expectation. So it's not just about fasting, but more of fasting, praying and pondering on the word of God. This season, its a New Season Conference. I used to play soccer. Before we had the main game, we had to practice. We had to prepare. There is so much preparation behind the scene. The same thing happens with the conference, we fast and pray, asking the Lord what can I do when iIget there? What can I be? It's not just what one can receive. When you have an expectation, God is too faithful. There is a place in the bible about the lady that had issue of blood. She was preparing to meet Jesus while others where touching Jesus. She was pondering on the Word, she was meditating on the Word. That's what she was fasting saying to herself, "If I could only touch him, I will be made well.” She said, Jesus, you don’t need to touch me. You don’t need to pray for me. I’ve seen the evidence that you are the Son of God, I’ve seen evidence that you are the same yesterday, today and forever. I have seen so many testimonies. I believe in you, but I would prepare myself whether you talk to me or not. But if I could only have a chance to touch you, I would be made well... And that’s what happened. So the Bible said that Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forevermore. Now three things you get from the Word of God are:

Number one, is the promise of God. The promise of God is the Word of God.

Number two, the principles in the way He operates. Now, if that lady said that and got a result, you can say that and get the same result because God does not lie, that’s called principles.

Number three, prophecy. The prophecy simply means the end of a thing. So it doesn’t matter where you are now, all things work together for your own good. So prophecy is the end. And so when God comes to you, He will say I have made you prosperous. He will not say I will make you. He will say the promised land is yours but He will never tell you the process. And He tells you the end of the thing, that’s prophecy. Now you have to prepare yourself . So for that lady not to have been living for more than 12 good years, so more than 12 good years, she has been suffering from that infirmity. And then she said to herself that she by preparing, fasting, believing, not to make God move but to allow God to minister to her. And fasting and praying, what can I do? She said, if I could only touch him, and she went on to touch him . So what can I do to touch Jesus. And when we prepare like that, God is too faithful to fail.

Where can people be a part of the Service? Where can they watch the service?

Apostle Peter: We’re going to be live on YouTube, on Facebook. and on Zoom. We will be streaming on social media platforms. We will also be in the house of the Lord where we will prepare our floors and overflows as all our churches will be attending. I mean that regardless of how much you watch through online, there are some things that cannot happen online. Online it’s good but its not wonderful. Online is good but we are supposed to be in the house of the Lord. That is the best way. David said I was glad when they said to me, let us go to the house of the Lord. What the enemy will try to do in this community is to kill the fight. While one is watching online, they can be easily distracted by either eating, lying in bed, and miss out on the move of God. The enemy is trying to weaken this generation so that we don’t people like the Benny Hynn, the Victor Kusi Boatengs, the Archbishops and we don’t have like someone like my father. He wants this generation to have just good Christians but no fire and we cannot allow that to happen.

Was there anything else

you would like people to know about the conference?

Apostle Peter: We just encourage families to share the gospel in this season as we are living in the last days. The enemy is vicious, angry and wants to destroy families, destroy children, especially our children and young boys. So it is a time to share the gospel, reach out to the gospel especially conferences like this to invite people. The best gift you can give to anyone in this season is to share the gospel because Jesus is coming back again. We cannot allow our family not to make it to heaven. One thing is that what should it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul? It’s going to be a disaster to see people who have been to church and never been to heaven. The only way miracles, signs and wonders can happen is when we share the Gospel. Because the gospel is a primary mandate, the miracles signs and wonders is as a result of the gospel. Prophecy is as a result of the gospel. When we focus on the gospel the other manifestations will show. This is the season for us to see another move of God, our focus has to be back to share the gospel. We believe we are changing families and in the process, changing generations!
