Editor's Note

Happy blessed October saints and welcome to the final quarter of 2020. Glory to the Most High God who has been our sustainer, our protector, our provider, our peace and indeed Our Source during this and every season.

We are privileged to be sharing with you a gem of a teaching replete with revelation that the Lord entrusted to His faithful servant Prophet Richard Amoaye. The topic this month is on the Dynamics of Favour and we focus on the popular topic of divine helpers using the story of Joseph as the case study. Brethren, we know that this revelations will shed light on aspects of this subject matter that will help you understand favour and Divine Helpers from the Lord's perspective.

Our youth and more seasoned writers complement this subject matter excellently by providing practical scenarios that will resonate with all.

We encourage you to visit our website (www.amoaye.org) and register for our monthly publications. You can also connect with Prophet Richard Amoaye everyday on Facebook at Richard Amoaye Ministries where he shares and prays with the saints on different aspects as the Lord leads.

Have a blessed month. We love you and Jesus loves you more.

Calvary Blessings

DIVINE HELPERS

"NOW JOSEPH HAD A DREAM, AND HE TOLD IT TO HIS BROTHERS; AND THEY HATED HIM EVEN MORE. SO HE SAID TO THEM, "PLEASE HEAR THIS DREAM WHICH I HAVE DREAMED: THERE WE WERE, BINDING SHEAVES IN THE FIELD. THEN BEHOLD, MY SHEAF AROSE AND ALSO STOOD UPRIGHT; AND INDEED YOUR SHEAVES STOOD ALL AROUND AND BOWED DOWN TO MY SHEAF." AND HIS BROTHERS SAID TO HIM, "SHALL YOU INDEED REIGN OVER US? OR SHALL YOU INDEED HAVE DOMINION OVER US?" SO THEY HATED HIM EVEN MORE FOR HIS DREAMS AND FOR HIS WORDS." ACTS 7: 9

Anytime God gives you an assignment, it is symbolic of His favour. God is impartial, consequently, if He was to release blessings in the absence of an assignment, He would need to do so uniformly to everyone across board. One's level of willingness to embrace the assignment God releases, determines the proportion of blessing dispensed. The blessing of God is therefore on the assignment and stewarded by the assignee.

The dream giver (God), is in-charge of the manifestation of the dream. Joseph's brothers understood what the dream meant and therefore envied Joseph. Therefore, if this dream was to come to pass, it would have to be outside his father's house. God therefore orchestrated a series of events cloaked by misfortune that shifted Joseph to his place of assignment. Brethren, God will often bring realignment through events that may initially baffle us in order to get us back on track with His divine program.

"Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." So he said to him, "Here I am." Then he said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem".

Genesis 37:12-14 NKJV

Israel (Jacob) was aware that Joseph's brothers did not like him, yet like a lamb to the slaughter, he still sent him out to meet them. Joseph journeyed out of Hebron to Shechem which means shoulder and is symbolic of responsibility.

Nameless

Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you seeking?"

Genesis 37: 15 NKJV

The unnamed man is the one who found Joseph and not vice versa. When we observe in scripture a nameless man whose lineage is not mentioned, it is akin to the Angel of the Lord or the second person in Trinity i.e. the Son of God made manifest (theophany). Brethren, oftentimes divine assignment comes to us in disguise. Jesse the Bethlehemite sent out his youngest son David to deliver food to his older brothers at the frontlines of battle not knowing that God was going to use David to deliver Israel. We see a similar scenario playing out in the life of Joseph and indeed the same happens in the life of saints everywhere even today.

Every favour starts with a place ~ PS Amoaye

Divine helpers direct you to a place. Everyone created by the Almighty has an assigned spot in life. With God, precision is vital. Precision guarantees synchrony and divine flow.

Whenever you locate your

place, you locate your Eden ~ PS Amoaye

Saints, at times what we consider misfortune may be God's perfect will for our lives.

"So he said, "I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks." And the man said, "They have departed from here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan"

Genesis 37: 16-17 NKJV

DOTHAN:

Double Well

Dothan means double well; the physical well and the spiritual well. At times the physical well may run dry but the spiritual well never runs dry. The spiritual realm is the dominant one and it governs the physical realm. We may live on earth but the supply or divine provision for the assignment will be derived from the spiritual realm. An office that is non-existent cannot be funded, neither can an office without an officer. Consequently, God's provision is only availed once man has accepted and engaged the divine assignment. Shechem, the place of responsibility, will introduce you to an assignment.

Vision

Dothan is also the place of vision. Joseph was daddy's favourite; the son of his old age. Israel doted over Joseph and even prepared a special coat of many colours for him much to the chagrin of his brothers. At Dothan, the coat made by man would be stripped and God would replace it with His coat of favour.

"Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. Then they said to one another, 'Look, this dreamer is coming!'"

Genesis 37: 18-19 NKJV

At the place of vision (Dothan), the brothers' mocking was prophetic. As Joseph approached them, they saw the dreamer. Saints, whenever people mock you because of the size of your God-given dream, they are actually prophesying. Anytime we dilute the dream or the assignment in order to appease men, we may win their applause which is the coat of many colours but in the process miss out on the coat of favour from God. In the dynamics of favour, God will introduce you to your Dothan, the place of double well and the place of vision. Vision should not be confused with ambition. Vision embodies the divine agenda. Vision forces you to purge yourself and shift from the carnal to the spiritual. Vision can only be executed by the grace of God. Without His favour, His grace or His strength, it is impossible.

"Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' We shall see what will become of his dreams!" But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him." And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father."

DISPOSITION: THE ISHMAELITES AND MIDIANITES

Dothan is not only the place of position but it is also the place of disposition. One must not only be in the right position but also have the correct disposition. Disposition refers to your outlook, your perspective i.e. the lens through which you see life. Joseph's safety was nestled in his father's (Jacob) approval, symbolised by the coat of many colours. That is where he derived his identity and God was about to strip that off him. "Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man And makes flesh his strength, Whose heart departs from the Lord" Jeremiah 17: 5 NKJV

Brethren, our hope is in the Lord and upon Him only should our eyes be focused. "And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt." Genesis 37: 25 NKJV

The Ishmaelites are a group of people who had learnt to master their pain and thus acted on conviction not emotion. Though Abraham was a man blessed with enough resources to raise a private army, he sent his son Ishmael away with only bread and water. The Ishmaelites had learnt that man can fail them but God is faithful to the end. The Ishmaelites carried with them the balm of Gilead which was for healing. Joseph had been betrayed and hurt by his own siblings. "Then Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt." Genesis 37: 28 NKJV

The Midianites are also descendants of Abraham from his wife Keturah. The Ishmaelites and Midianites were divine helpers. Brethren, at times God will use the unlikeliest vessels to be conduits of His divine agenda. Just as the Raven was used to feed Elijah the prophet and a prostitute was used to clean the feet of Jesus, we must not box God in our perception regarding whom He may choose to deliver divine providence. God was building character in Joseph. Misfortune and victimisation develops empathy experientially as one becomes familiar with the pinch of a shoe that hurts to walk in. Through this process, Joseph 'daddy's boy' was having his biases erased. Though unpleasant, this too was divine favour.

Saints, God does not want us to get to the pinnacle of our life devoid of Him. The world may believe that the end justifies the means but with God the means are of paramount importance. True blessing is not material but is the exhibition of the fruits of the Spirit. What makes us should not be what we have but Who we have. The Ishmaelites were reorienting Joseph in preparation of his next office. By the time of that appointment, he had put on Christ and had lost the coat of many colours. Brethren, our biggest growth spurts in our walk with Christ are experienced when we're literally leaning on Him, sometimes even dependent on His mercy for our daily physical sustenance. Some divine helpers are sent to work on our disposition which may include breaking us. Some may be vicious but even their wickedness towards us will be turned around for our good.

"The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart— These, O God, You will not despise." Psalms 51: 17 NKJV

Self Control

The way of the world is to seek domination over one another, however, the Lord desires that we learn to rein in our emotions. God's goodness is not premised on perfect circumstances, au contraire, He is able to use every situation to His glory. "as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." 2 Peter 1: 3-4 NKJV

There are elements of the divine nature that we cannot realise in our earthly vessel such as His Omnipotence, Omniscience or Omnipresence. However, there are elements we can be partakers of such as His kindness, His intelligence etc. These are communicable. God's cultivation of Joseph's character served him well in the house of Potiphar where he exhibited God's divine nature. Joseph had survived the trauma from his father's house and that equipped him for what happened in Potiphar's house. He learnt to master pain and betrayal and not allow it to change him and his beliefs. Joseph had developed in character, he was emotionally stable. When you are emotionally stable, you may get angry, but you will not sin out of anger. When you are emotionally stable, you will not lose your disposition and people will not determine your mood. "by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

2 Peter 1: 4 NKJV

Servant Leadership

Power is service, it is not positional. The lust for positional power has contributed to the corruption in the world. The proof of leadership is suffering. Whenever one is not ready to suffer in order to serve the cause of heaven, they are not ready for promotion.

Real Testimonies

Testimony

Its always a blessing to have a spiritual father who is very well attuned to the things of heaven. My family and I are truly blessed to have Prophet Richard Amoaye as our spiritual Papa and we are an example of God's goodness through God's Power Ministries. Papa always says God reveals to redeem and this is very true. Many things that we do not know of are brought to our attention through prophecies and we hold this word dear.

Today I am sharing my testimony related to a powerful declaration that was brought forward by our Papa.

Prior to receiving the prophesy my company went through an acquisition in July 2019 which led to a lot of changes, our CEO and Operations Manager retiring and our salaries being changed from fortnightly to monthly. My wife is very well organised and loves to budget ahead. I thank God for her because I am the opposite. She would question me about the amount I was receiving each month but I would give her reasons insinuating that this was the right monthly income. Since July 2019 my salary was inconsistent, she continued to question and I had to inquire with the HR department who advised me that the salary I was receiving was correct according to the new changes that had been implemented. My wife though unhappy she went ahead and readjusted our budgets accordingly.

Now during one of the powerful weekly Friday services, Papa went into his 'prophetic elements' and touched on the Australian business sector. He prophesied that there were companies wrongly paying their workers and through this prophecy he declared that there would come a change. He further declared that there were people in the auditorium who would be repaid their lost monies. Without knowing I would be one of them I received the declaration by faith.

Months went by and I continued to receive this inconsistent income, which by the way affected our savings. In February 2020 my wife gave birth to a beautiful baby Girl, she went on maternity leave as we all know the maternity leave income is less than the regular. During this time I also took 5 weeks off to celebrate proper proper and adjust my life to the new responsibilities. Upon my return to work in March 2020 I was advised of yet another change. My salary was being reverted to fortnightly. This actually worked in my favour as my wife and I we were used to this occurrence. During this time there had been scandals of plenty of companies being identified to have underpaid their workers. At this time this did not ring a bell to think back about the prophecy that Papa had declared couple of months earlier.

In April 2020, I started to notice that my pay was incorrect but this time in a good way, I couldn't complain rather I had a big smirk on my face, I was getting more money!!! I thought to myself "They might have made a mistake and will definitely ask for the money back", but no this was a prophecy being fulfilled. Little did I know I was one of the candidates to receive such favour. Each fortnight my salary increased then I reflected back to when Papa spoke about the repayments to those that had been short-changed.

Pou Paa and Family

DILIGENCE

"But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge"

2 PETER 1: 2 NKJV

Saints, diligence is pivotal to the successful execution of assignment. God looks at the heart but man observes the work ethic and diligence of an individual. One may have the favour of God but without diligence the assignment will not be accomplished. Diligence calls on us to rise above our human sentiments and march forward because of our conviction in the cause. God's preparation imbues in us His altruistic nature that we may be sterling ambassadors of His name.

"But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins." Peter 1: 5-9 NKJV

If we do not learn self control and mastery over self, we may be blown away when the sea billows roll and be displaced from the place of our divine appointment. Saints, let us mature until the fruits of the spirit become evident in our lives. It is only when we have learnt self restraint that we will be able to resist the wife of Potiphar. Potiphar is representative of the systems of the world. These systems are incongruous to the ways of God. In business it may be giving out a bribe or under reporting on tax for example, it may reduce cost in the short term but it is akin to lying down with Mrs Potiphar. Brethren, ultimately your dream will eventuate, but before that there will be a Potiphar's experience. Potiphar was an executioner but did not kill Joseph because deep down, he knew the truth. He opted to lock Joseph in the king's prison in order to save face with an instruction that Joseph should be cared for. Joseph lost everything material but never lost his relationship with God for even in prison the Lord was with him. Allow God to shape your values.

Joseph found favour in prison and his gift was used to serve the baker and the butler. Joseph had developed acute spiritual sensitivity and was able to perceive when a divine opportunity had availed itself. Perception catapults you to your next level of favour. When pharaoh had a dream that required urgent interpretation, he did not care about the nationality or the past of the interpreter. Joseph, a Hebrew convict was called upon. By this time, Joseph had been purged and gone through the refining process and thus could handle responsibility without sinking from its weight. Joseph was ready and by divine favour found himself propelled from prison to Prime Minister of Egypt, the world's Super Power at the time. Joseph's position was physical but his disposition was heavenly, this is the highest form of favour. God will make sure you are prepared for that which he has prepared for you.

The answers of your future are in the mystery of your past
~ PS Amoaye

It is only those who have suffered with Christ that can glory in Him. Scars in our walk with Christ therefore become our only bragging right.

PROPHETIC DECREES & DECLARATIONS

I decree over your life that you will be ready when the office becomes available.

May the blood of Jesus speak better things than the blood of Abel over every blood that is calling for vengeance. Father purge me of my sins and restore in me a clean heart.

May your divine helpers locate you. I decree and declare that you shall fulfil purpose and destiny and your disposition shall be right. May the office not change you but may you change the office and introduce the Kingdom of God into the affairs of men.

ITS NOT COINCIDENCE OR LUCK... IT'S GODS PLAN

Once read a story about a baby who was abandoned in a dumpster a few hours after he was born somewhere in a rural area in Florida. A passer-by heard the cry of the distressed baby and went on to notify the police. The baby was taken to the hospital and then placed into a foster home. The foster parents who themselves had a biological daughter decided to adopt him. The child was often bullied as he grew up as some kids jeered at him and called him "dumpster baby"; however he did not let his circumstances define him. At the age of 9, his father bought him a broken computer so that he could play around with it to keep him out of trouble and this triggered his son's love for technology. A few years later his father developed Alzheimer's, would frequently wander off and this boy went on to invent a special device to help track his father's whereabouts. He didn't create this product for profit but out of necessity, he went on to sell the designs of this product for $2 million helping him start his own company. This boy is Freddie Figgers, founder of a multi-million-dollar company Figgers Communications, a privately held telecommunications company and he is one of America's youngest telecommunication leader.

This story to some might seem like a series of coincidences, but I believe that there is no such thing as luck or coincidence. Everything that happens to us, is part of a perfectly orchestrated divine order to help us fulfill our purpose in life. There are so many verified stories in the public domain of people who had a disadvantaged upbringing but have gone to have a significant impact, not just on a local level but also on a global scale. Each of these stories usually have one thing in common – a selfless person who was willing to help that person because they had compassion for them. Freddie's story shows how an act of kindness has a flow on effect to the foster dad and ultimately thousands of people who have benefitted from his products and services.

God created us to live in a community where we are dependent not only on the people around us but also on nature that help sustain us and provide us with the resources that we need. The triune God is a community of three yet operates as one God and we are supposed to reflect the trinity in our daily lives. We are all created for a divine purpose, this purpose is to ultimately fulfill God's agenda here on earth. To help us fulfill our purpose, God has put us in certain communities where we are exposed to different people who will help us at different points in our lives. God assigns different people at different stages in our lives to ultimately fulfill our purpose, every person has a different part to play in this journey of life.

Nobody succeeds in life without help in one form or another, Jesus sent us a helper who is the Holy Spirit, our foremost destiny helper. God has also positioned other men and women at different stages in our life to help us actualize our destiny. It is important to pray for our life helpers. This prayer is so that we will be at the right location and get the right connections so that we do not miss our helpers. Many people miss opportunities for their elevation because of their preconceived idea of what a helper should look like or what form the help should come in. As you are reading this, I declare that may you be located by your divine helpers at the right time and may you be open to the help and not have your judgment clouded by preconceived ideas.

Sometimes, when destiny helpers appear in your life they do not always seem to be there to help you reach your destiny. Take the story of Joseph for example, I believe that his brothers were part of the destiny helpers cohort in his life. It took his brother's scheme to get rid of him by selling him off to the Midianite traders for him to be positioned in Egypt (Genesis 37:18-28). Immigration was not just what God had in mind but he wanted Joseph to have political influence in Egypt and serve a greater purpose. Once in Egypt, Joseph experienced false accusations by Potiphar's wife and was put in prison. This was a terrible and unfair situation, however God favored Joseph in prison. It was during that imprisonment period that he used his gift of interpretation which eventually led to him being released and elevated to an important government position. Joseph's story teaches us that our attitude towards our situations in life determines if we are able to recognize the destiny helpers in our lives. Last time I checked God's plans for us are not of evil but to prosper us, and to give us hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11). God sometimes uses unpleasant and incomprehensible people and situations to elevate us. As you are reading this, you may be going through an uncomfortable situation, take time to consider the fact that there is a reason for you being in that place, it is part and parcel of your journey towards your destiny.

The story of Joseph teaches us that it is possible that you can meet your destiny helper today but their help can happen much later. It teaches us the need to treat everyone we meet with respect and dignity as you never know who will help you reach your destiny in the future. Should we then actively seek destiny helpers? – No destiny helpers are not our source; God is (Matthew 6:33). We shouldn't get too caught up in trying to identify who are our destiny helpers are but concentrate on seeking God and He will reveal to us who they are at the right time. We need to be patient because our helpers can only move to help you when they are inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Some people are there to give us strength to endure the journey even when we become weary and tired. They will recommend you to the right people so that you are favored, they will speak on your behalf – like David when he wanted to favor someone from Saul's household for Jonathon's sake (2 Samuel 9:1). One day someone can be your destiny helper and another day you can be their destiny helper. The stories of Freddie, Joseph and David is testament to how the concept of destiny helpers is usually not a one-way street but a cycle of cooperation and helping each other to reach our destinies. In helping others, we attract helpers ourselves. The posture of receiving is exactly the same as the posture of giving and every receiver has the capacity to give. As you open yourself up to destiny helpers in your path, allow God to use and bring out the destiny helper within you. Always remember that God already has a plan for you and some situations in your life are pieces of the puzzle and are not coincidence.

I pray that God will open your eyes to identify your helpers and that you do not get lost on your destiny road but achieve your destiny, in Jesus' name, Amen.

FAVOUR: An Upper Hand in Life

Favour of Favour of God is like an upper hand in life, giving you the needed advantage in life. His favour will cause you to stand out in the crowd, it will open doors that you would not have been able to by yourself. His favour has the power to take you from the background to the foreground and will cause you to be accepted in positions you are not qualified for. The favour of God sets us apart and the beautiful part of it all is that it is unmerited. God freely gives it to us. I have asked myself this question so many times in life, I ask myself "why would he favour me?", why bless me? "I have not done anything special to deserve his favour". Grace is commonly described as unmerited favour meaning undeserved unearned favour. It is important for us to understand that God gives favour in line with his assignment and purpose for you. And one might ask "I don't know what my purpose is? His favour will accelerate your journey to your purpose and destiny. It will propel you in the direction you ought to go in. God had an assignment for Joseph which was to save the people of Egypt in a time of famine. In the years leading up to his appointment, Joseph was sold into slavery by his brothers, the wife of his master Potiphar lied on him and had him thrown in prison, there did not seem to be a clear sight of where his life would turn out to be. But the favour of God turned a slave and prisoner into a governor over the land of Egypt

"Esther obtained favour in the sight of all who saw her," and the king "loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen."

Esther 2:17

An opportunity will need to present itself in order for the favour of God to be made manifest. When the Lord releases his hand of favour over you, He gives you the influence to be a blessing to the people around you. There are no coincidences, only God-incidents. Everything that happened to Joseph was designed to lead him to the position of governor of Egypt. The journey of Esther to become queen was a heavenly design by God to lead her to save her people.

"For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

Esther 4:14

When God has a purpose over your life that needs to be completed he will give you an upper hand to ensure that doors are opened for you to reach your ultimate destiny. It can be daunting to find out the purpose that God has for your life. Thoughts of how it will come to pass will flood your mind and cause you to fear and doubt. You only need to start moving in the direction of your calling and God will handle the how. His favour caters for the how factor. God will use people you will not expect to favour you. If it's a business idea you had but do not know how you will actually execute it because of factors such as finances, call upon God for him to release his favour over you and watch how your story will change. If God's favour can turn a slave/prisoner into a powerful governor of a country or an orphan into a queen then he can also do it for you. Favour is an upper hand in life that is granted by God to us. God sees the bigger picture, he doesn't bless you for yourself but his blessings through you need to extend to your family, community, nation and the world.

"Surely, LORD, you bless the righteous; you surround them with your favour as with a shield."

Psalms 5:12

So I challenge you today to go and start that business, apply for that mortgage, apply for that job or course that you feel you are under qualified for. For God will qualify the called. And you are called by God. Challenges will still come however the touch from God will ensure that you are not defeated or overcome by the challenges. Favour is an ingredient that is only found in the recipe of a believer. Being smart or talented alone does not set you apart for elevation in life, you need a touch of God and he will release his favour but you need to make sure you have the faith.

Remember one touch of favour is worth more than a lifetime of labour

The Mystery Of Excellence:

LESSONS FROM THE EXPERIENCES OF SHECHEM

RICHARD AMOAYE

ABOUT THE BOOK

Prayer is a 'command' for all believers, yet for many it remains a mystery. It is a puzzle that has left many believers living in frustration because many prayers have seemingly gone unanswered.

Fortunately, our race, age, gender and social status has never mattered when it comes to getting answers to our prayers. The key to dealing with frustration from unanswered prayer lies in us understanding God's original intent when He designed prayer.

This book will help you prepare your mind to align with God's word regarding prayer by focusing on His will and purpose for your life. As you read it, may you be enlightened to approach Prayer with the guidance of the Holy Spirit!

RAM Programmes

We live in a time where we are most enlightened, educated and have the resources to live satisfied life's yet a lot of us live without hope. Our enlightenment fails in offering real solutions for many of the hopelessness we see in our world. This is because most of the issues that confront us have their source in the spiritual realm. As such, we need to be equipped to deal with the root causes instead of the symptoms. PROPHETIC ATMOSPHERE is designed not only to create an atmosphere conducive for possibilities but also empowers us to identify, disrupt and diffuse the enemy's agendas; and enforce God's will in our lives, families and world. Remember there is nothing like impossibility in the Realm of the Prophetic. That is why RAM's Prophetic Atmosphere Conferences (including our facebook livestream sessions held every thursday (7-8 pm AEST) and the RAM feed the homeless project held periodically are important

If you want Jesus Christ to be your Lord and Personal Saviour...

You May Say This Prayer With faith;

Heavenly Father,

I come to you in prayer asking for the forgiveness of my sins. I confess with my mouth and believe with my heart that Jesus Christ is your son, And that He died on the Cross at Calvary that I might be forgiven and have eternal Life in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Father, I believe that Jesus rose from death and I ask you right now to come in to my life and be my personal Lord and Saviour. I repent of my sins and will worship you all the days of my Life.

Because your word is truth, I confess with my mouth that I am born again and cleansed by the Blood of Jesus!

In Jesus name I pray with thanksgiving.

AMEN
