Testimony of the month— Tawonga Manzini

Is the official mouthpiece of The Richard Amoaye Ministries.

Editor's Note

Happy March saints! We trust that by the grace of God you and your loved ones are keeping well. This month, we have a special treat. Our submissions are drawn from a potent teaching delivered by a powerful woman of God. She is the Executive pastor of God's Power ministries as well as an accomplished author and wife to the founder of this great ministry; pastor Patrice Amoaye.

In this month's issue, we ask the critical question; what goes before you? It is in our exploration of this topic that we pick up keys that will prove vital to our manifestation. What precedes the business, the ministry, the relationship etc that we are believing God for? What are the necessary action steps we are taking spiritually in order to ensure our manifestation? Complementing this is a submission by Honorine where she looks at how we can practically experience God's presence in our daily lives. Rounding up this month's issue is a revisit of a testimony, keys from above by Tawonga that displays how manifestation of God's promises can turn one's season of darkness into joy. It is bound to spur hope and joyful expectation.

Inspiring greatness ministries will be hosting our first convocation of the year on 03/03-06/03. It's a rare gathering of prophets from around the world who by the grace of God will decode the mysteries of heaven and inspire greatness by revealing the perfect will of God. You do not want to miss this. If you are unable to travel please join us online. Flyer details are on the back page.

We love you and Jesus loves you more.

Calvary Blessings,

Editor,
Gichia Mungai

MORE THAN JUST THE NEXT BIG THING

“A word you do not conceive, cannot grow”
~ PS Patrice Amoaye

Growth happens at the point of conception. One can only manifest that which has taken root in them. Manifestation is simply the revealing of that which is already in you. Consequently, that which you are about to manifest in 2021 is not something that God is going to manufacture afresh. Au contraire, there were treasures coded in your very DNA before the beginning of time for the purpose of your divine assignment. These days, the world is awash with ‘the next big thing’. The next great idea, the next great talent, the next great unicorn. Adjectives such as phenom and prodigy are bandied about, diluting their efficacy. The advent of social media, for better or for worse, enables everyone to be a ‘star’ in their own right. However, what the world is really yearning for, beyond just another company or another great talent is light.

SALT AND LIGHT

“You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Matthew 5:14-16 NKJV

Brethren, we are ambassadors of the most High God. Through us, His light and glory are seen. As we execute our God given assignment, by His grace and under the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit, His purposes and perfect will in the various different sectors that we occupy are made known and manifest. Saints, we cannot be like the world and expect to change the world.

“You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.”

Matthew 5:14 NKJV

When we blend in with the world, the result is that we lose our flavour and become as neutralised as tasteless salt. Just as salt preserves food through dehydration, we as Christians serve a safeguard function in the earth as well. When in alignment with the will of the Father, we are conduits through which He can express Himself to a world cloaked in darkness. When His light shines through us, darkness cannot prevail. His light shines hope and reflects His love. Just as parched travellers would make a beeline to an oasis in a desert, so would the world to Christ when the Christian is functioning as salt and light.

As iterated in earlier submissions, Prophet Richard Amoaye received a sure word from the King of Kings that this year, 2021, is our year of Greater Manifestation.

*"For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, And do not return there, But water the earth, And make it bring forth and bud, That it may give seed to the sower And bread to the eater, So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me void, But it shall accomplish what I please, And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it. Isaiah 55:10-11 NKJV

*"I will worship toward Your holy temple, And praise Your name For Your lovingkindness and Your truth; For You have magnified Your word above all Your name. Psalms 138:2 NKJV

The Lord has magnified His Word above His name. God is sovereign until He speaks. He has spoken through His prophet and to them who will believe, His Word will not return to Him void. Saints, if you and I are to take heed of this Word, we cannot be disappointed. By the time 2022 rolls around, we will be thanking God for His faithfulness as we count our blessings in joy and gratitude.

THE IMPERIAL BUBBLE

The leader of the free world i.e. the president of the United States Of America travels in a security zone, a "bubble" as it's known - a tightly managed network of aircrafts, vehicles and communication that lets him move easily around the world. The presidential bubble is thick - and pricey. The president rides in a limousine known as the Beast, which is designed to withstand bullets and chemical attacks. The president flies on a Boeing 747 jet that costs $180,000 (£116,000) per hour to operate - and can be refuelled in the middle of a flight. Electronic equipment on board is designed to withstand all kinds of duress, including force from an electromagnetic pulse. Secret Service agents take the lead on travel logistics, often arriving months beforehand to clear the airspace, map out a motorcade route, identify hospitals, and other secure locations in case of an attack. To ensure a stress-free flight, national agencies announce temporary flight restrictions days before the scheduled trip to restrict movement in a given area when the president, vice president, or other security official travels. Though Air Force One is the president's most iconic mode of travel, there's a backup plane just like it that comes on the trips to ensure the president or first lady has a sure exit strategy.

Without this level of attentive scrutiny, the safety of the leader of the free world would be at risk as he would be exposed to danger.

Saints, similarly, we cannot defeat or conquer an enemy whose strength we do not understand.

*"Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? Luke 14:31 NKJV

WHAT GOES BEFORE YOU? -PRAYER

"I have set the Lord always before me; Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved."

Psalms 16:8 NKJV

Brethren, in this year of Greater Manifestation, integral to our success or lack thereof will be our answer to the question, what goes before us? What precedes the business, the ministry etc that we are believing God for? Akin to the secret service, we need to carry out spiritual due diligence, and comb out the area we have been called to. We need to understand its terrain and the giants that may be currently occupying it. We cannot afford to be ignorant of the enemy's devices.

"For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries."

1 Corinthians 6:9 NKJV

The presence of adversaries does not necessarily mean that the open door is not meant for you. As Paul recognised in the above scripture, though the great door that had opened was his, there were still many adversaries. That then begs the question, what can we as believers do to overcome our antagonists? What or whom do we have going before us?

Saints, prayer is pivotal to a believer's life, quite frankly, it is mandatory. Prayer brings us into alignment with that which has already been ordained concerning our lives in heaven before the beginning of time. Agreement is paramount to manifestation. On the altar of prayer, we are agreeing with heaven for God's will to be made manifest on earth.

"The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's; But the earth He has given to the children of men." Psalms 115: 16 NKJV

God is supreme as ABBA, the Source.

However, He has given the earth realm to the children of men. Because He has placed His Word above His name, He cannot interfere in this realm without the involvement of man. Just as a landlord cannot burge into a property he has leased out without the consent of the tenant. Prayer introduces the Omnipotent, Omniscient God into our affairs. We are limited in every sense whereas He is infinite in every sense. The impossible thus becomes possible when He steps in. Saints, in this year of Greater Manifestation, let prayer precede every venture we undertake. Before we engage that exciting business project, promising relationship or album release, let us consult the all knowing One. Let us involve Him. Let us allow Him to lead and guide the way. He after all is the owner and we are His stewards. Saints, the state of the foundation determines the longevity and stability of a building. Let the foundation of that which we embark on and engage in this year be built on His assurance. His Word, inspiration from His Spirit; His greenlight. When we fail to do this, we miss out on His perfect plan for our lives. Saints, whatever God has revealed about your life, about your business, your marriage, principles of faith and manifestation than even the Jews.

WHAT GOES BEFORE YOU?- THE SPIRIT OF GOD

"Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, That it cannot save; Nor His ear heavy, That it cannot hear. But your iniquities have separated you from your God; And your sins have hidden His face from you, So that He will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, And your fingers with iniquity; Your lips have spoken lies, Your tongue has muttered perversity. No one calls for justice, Nor does any plead for truth. They trust in empty words and speak lies; They conceive evil and bring forth iniquity." Isaiah 59: 1-4 NKJV

"Expectation is the womb of manifestation" ~ PS Richard Amoaye

ministry etc, speak it out and decree it everyday. Command your morning and allow prayer to go before you.

WHAT GOES BEFORE YOU?- A WORD

"Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented." And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it. " When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel! And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

Matthew 8: 5-13 NKJV

The Word of God does not function in a vacuum. There are complementing elements that constitute its efficacy. Essential components of obedience, humility, responsibility and service are all in display in the above portion of scripture.

The Word of God inspires faith in one that takes in the Word. That faith drives one into action. Action once executed fosters expectation and expectations breed manifestation.

Brethren, when the Word of God comes, believe it. It is only to them that believe that the Word will be effective. The proof that you believe is that you take action based upon the released Word.

"Faith is action towards the things we hope for "

~ PS Richard Amoaye

It is folly to expect results without action. For example, after we pray and believe God for a particular job, we must then submit an application. Action is proof positive of our belief. Once we have submitted that application, we wait expectantly (not fearfully) for the result/manifestation of that which God had already revealed to us.

The centurion exhibited these qualities. He was a gentile and yet displayed a higher level of understanding of the Brethren, the presence of God does not dwell amongst uncleanness. It is true that we have all sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. It is true that He is merciful and faithful to forgive. However, that should not be a licence to consciously engage in and live in a way and manner that we know displeases the Lord. To choose this is an indication that the fear of the Lord is not in us. God is Holy and He requires us to be Holy. When we accept Him as Lord and saviour and submit to Him, He dwells in us and endows us with the grace to overcome sin and temptation.

"No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it."

1 Corinthians 10:13 NKJV

Saints, let us strive to learn from our mistakes. A mistake repeated more than once is a deliberate choice. Should we stumble and fall, let us repent, rise up, dust ourselves off and move forward wiser; never to repeat the same again. Sanctification is key to enjoying the presence of God.

"Every great achievement, requires an equally great sacrifice"
~ Ps Patrice Amoaye

"And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments. Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me in the way which I have gone." And they journeyed, and the terror of God was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob." Genesis 35: 2-3, 5 NKJV

When Jacob was preparing his household to go before the Lord at Bethel, he instructed them to purify themselves first; to put away all idols and to change their garments. As they journeyed to Bethel, after sanctification, the presence of God was with them and the terror of God fell upon the cities along their way and none pursued them. Saints, you and I need the presence of God to go before us in order to secure victory and manifest. We need to purify ourselves and we need to maintain His presence by living and conducting our lives in a way that is pleasing to Him.

Saints, we need to discern what we require to go before us. Once we identify that element, we then need to align ourselves accordingly so we are effective channels. The solution is not one size fits all, it is custom made for you and your assignment. God created you for a specific reason, He is on your side. He yearns that you prosper in the area He called you to. Approach His throne of grace, He is your Father and He will show you the way that you should go.

Prophetic Decrees & Declarations

- The Word of God revealed and released upon my life will not return void! It will accomplish what it has been sent for in Jesus mighty name!
- The discerning grace, the enablement grace for the execution of divine assignment is my portion in Jesus name!
- In 2021 I will manifest according to the purpose of God for my life and His glory will be evident through my life in Jesus name!

Real Testimonies

The storm before the calm

Tears ran down my cheeks as the thoughts of recent events raced through my mind. People walked by, jogged by, ran with their dog's past where me and a friend were sitting. Sometimes in that state of sadness or sorrow, you close out and forget the world that continues to spin around while you feel yours has come to a complete stop. The looks on the passersby faces were of sympathy and confusion as they wondered why there was a male weeping profusely in a park and another trying to comfort him and tell him everything will be alright. At that point I just let it all out as it had been a dark cloud above my head for the past couple of months. I was torn on the inside and didn't know where else to go and what else to do. I felt out of options and that the whole world was against me. Anything I touched fell apart. I was supposed to be a man, but I felt as a passenger in my own life. Like I stood and watched as all bad things happened to me. I had no control of my life and my future. I felt I was destined to fail. I had tried everything, or so I thought...

This is an account (testimony) from end of 2018 till this day. An account of the untold things which happened and led us to be closer to God than we would have ever believed. Though there is much to say, I will focus on the main things which will bring you, the reader, to the understanding of Ephesians 3:20 "Now to him who can do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us..."

I began working for McDonalds in 2007, as my first job upon arriving in Australia. It was an easy job to attain and as a Uni student, it was most convenient. I mostly worked overnight shifts until 3am and would go home to sleep for an 8am start at uni. In 2010 I moved to a different McDonalds which was closer to home and worked there for a couple of years before being promoted to management for my hard work. I became a manager on the same year of my graduation at University. I tried to find work which was in line with my degree but without any luck. McDonalds then became my permanent employment. During this time, I met Helen and we dated long distance for a few years. After that we decided a long-distance relationship proved costly. The debate arose where either she moved to Gold Coast or I moved to Sydney. In her defense, she said she was a very important figure in her church and hence she couldn't just leave. Well, well, well, what a shocker!!! She also had Uni to finish. I wasn't quite convinced by this until a time came and it was Power Conference at GPM where I flew in to see what the fuss was about with this church. I was attending Christ Embassy in Gold Coast at the time. At this Conference, what I had seen on TV and on YouTube was happening before my eyes. Though I didn't believe it at that time, at least I was being a witness to it. Prophet Victor Kusi Boateng's messages were on fire. Something in me just shifted and before I knew it, I moved to Sydney.

Tawonga Manzini, Sydney Australia

Initially, when I left that McDonalds, I promised myself I wouldn't work at another again. My first work in Sydney was at Guzman And Gomez as a supervisor. After a few months, I wasn't getting much hours and so was prompted to look for more work. Sydney was proving quite expensive to live in. I got work at Sydney Airport working for Jetstar. Even then the hours were not enough. My last option was then to return to a McDonalds where I was offered 40hrs a week in management. Perfect!!! Initially when I began at this McDonalds, I told them I would not work Sundays and that I would not work overnight either. They agreed on all terms and so that journey began. Many months went by until I got rostered on a Sunday. I approached my supervisor about it, and she said it was a one off. I left it as is until it happened again. When I asked, she said she had no option and that I had to work whatever she gave me. That no one was beyond it. I didn't argue further as I am not that type of person. Soon I got rostered a week on overnights. I contested it and she came back and said she can't give someone exemption to have a whole day off and not work overnights. I told her that was what she agreed to when she signed me up, but she said she won't do that.

My treatment from her changed soon enough. Before I knew it, I wasn't good enough a manager. She was never happy with my results and anything I did wrong was the worst thing anyone could do. She always told me how I wasn't good enough and how I needed to do better all the time. As someone who had worked at McDonalds all those years, I knew that I was quite good at what I did. Before I knew it, I started feeling like a failure myself. I started hating my job. I started getting depressed and stressed out. I hated having to wake up for work at any point. I tried being positive, but the place would just drain the life out of me. Everyone there loved me and loved working with me, but her... The moment she showed up, everything changed. And she was a supervisor who would strike terror in her employees. I soon then realized that she had target people she treated unfairly. That there were people she would never treat the way she treated me. These people would do far worse than I did but easily get away with it. I then began to monitor this and soon I realized it was so obvious that even the other employees could see it. She would shout at me in front of employees, talk me down in front of customers, disgrace me. I then messaged her asking what she had against me and if she would make time to resolve this difference. She responded that she had nothing against me and that she treated everyone the same. I pointed out where that wasn't true, and she was adamant I was being false. She wouldn't make time to sit down and discuss it either. Soon I had enough and drafted a resignation later. I handed it to the Restaurant Manager, and he was quite upset that he would lose me. As such, he messaged her and the Store owner who then agreed to have a meeting with me. At this meeting, the store owner addressed all my concerns and mentioned his plans to make me restaurant manager in his new store that was being built. He apologized on behalf of my supervisor and asked her to apologize for her actions as well. He stated that he wasn't aware of all this and wished I had come to him first before I resigned. Matters were resolved at that point and I went back to work.

It was only a few months before she began mistreating me again. I guess the biggest issue was where I would go if I quit, which is why I held on for so long. I was stuck at that job because I needed the money. The stress grew more and more. The depression came and built up. I went and saw Papa about it, and he prayed for me. He gave me one of his books to read which taught me to deal with what was happening inside of me. A few months passed and I couldn't handle it anymore. The torment and the stress had taken their toll on me. I was changing as a person; it was affecting me; it was affecting my relationship with Helen. Towards the end of 2018 as we were planning our trip to Zimbabwe, I decided that I cannot come back to this job after that. I approached Helen and told her I was resigning. She tried to discourage me as I wouldn't be able to afford my bills. I tried sticking with it until one day I just told her I am doing it. I went and submitted my resignation without any remorse. My restaurant manager tried to make me stay but I told him this was the last straw.

In January, upon returning from Zimbabwe, the job hunt began. I got part time work where Helen was employed but I only got 2 shifts a fortnight. Bills began piling up, Helen had to step in to help where she could. Soon it became a heavy burden to her as well. We were a few months away from our wedding and as time went by, we realized there wasn't going to be money to pay for it. We struggled to get any other work for me. We looked for anything, absolutely anything we could get. Ortha stepped in and started looking for work for me as well. Every time he found something, he would call me and try get me the job there. All jobs came back unsuccessful and my inbox was filled with emails of these rejections. I had no money and I always had to ask Helen for money for food. Days came when I had only one meal a day. Sometimes I would sleep on only a can of baked beans. One night I even had a full bottle of peanut butter. I was constantly stressed and lost some weight. I couldn't pay my phone bill until they blocked outgoing calls. That also meant I could not ring out for jobs. I had to rely on Wi-Fi. My phone would ring sometimes, and I wouldn't answer for fear of debt collectors. This season was rough, and it led to a lot of disagreements with Helen. Had it not been for Papa, things would have gone a lot worse and I wouldn't have married my destiny helper.

I developed a tooth problem during this time, and I couldn't afford to get that tooth removed. After a lot of sleepless nights, my sister rang me, and I told her what I was going through. She sent me $1000 to deal with my tooth and live off it for a while. She suggested we call the wedding off as we couldn't afford it, but I assured her things will work out. Papa hadn't seemed worried about what we were going through. Though to us it was like we had lost everything, every time we went to cry to him, he would just smile and say, "all is well". What we needed was, do this and this and this and you will solve your problems. All we got was, "all is well!!". We didn't understand it at that time, but Papa knew what was to come.

Experiencing God's Divine Presence in Your Daily Life

WALKING FAITHFULLY WITH GOD

When we give our lives to Christ and accept him as our personal lord and saviour, we are not only being saved from sin and death, but we are also subscribing to an abundant life full of his guidance, wisdom and protection. A life that is so full of the God's presence that sickness, depression, anxiety, poverty and all the works of the devil flee.

When I first started my walk with God, I was so eager to live as the men/women in bible who walked with God in powerful ways and who experienced God's presence mightily. In Genesis 5: 24 (NIV), the Bible says that Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away. Enoch is the first man that we see in the bible who "walked with God" and, as a result, was physically lifted into glory by God. I became fascinated with the people who lived extraordinary lives as a result of walking with God. People who had the privilege of meeting Kathryn Kuhlman, the mighty woman of God, report to have felt an undeniable physical presence of God surrounding her and wherever she went, healing and miracles followed. I believe that it is possible for you and me to experience the same and greater impact of the presence of God in our lives. Despite our increasingly busy lives, it is still possible to experience God’s divine presence in our daily lives. In the next paragraphs, you will find insights on what it means to walk with God and how to start experiencing more of his presence in your life.

Walking with God Everyday

What does it mean to walk with God in our daily lives? What does it mean practically? What can you start doing today to tap into the presence of God as you go about your daily activities? The biblical term “walking with God” has both a literal and figurative meaning. When the Israelites were being delivered from the Egypt, the Bible says “by day the Lord went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night”

(Exodus 13: 21). It goes on to say (verse 22) that neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

The same is true for you and I today. The presence of God surrounds us as we sleep, walk, talk, and work. One of my favourite bible stories is when Elisha said to his servant “those who are with us are greater than those who are with them (2 Kings 6:16).

When the servant’s eyes opened, he saw hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha (verse 17). God’s presence in your life is constant, you just have to start believing it. The next time you walk into a building or start an activity, do so with the confidence that God’s presence surrounds you.

This is the literal meaning of walking with God, it will instantly cast away fear and anxiety from your life. You will begin to walk boldly and speak with confidence; you will no longer tremble at the devil’s threats because you know that God’s presence is all around you. Many people travel with crippling fear that they might be involved in an accident, others fear witchcraft and spells. Although these things are very much real and happen every day, the greatest demonstration of faith is to not be overcome with fear because you know that God's mighty presence surrounds you. The figurative meaning of walking with God refers to leading a lifestyle

the law. In this context, walking with God is allowing yourself to be transformed by the Holy Spirit and live a life that mimics the life of Christ. You can begin walking with God in this manner by asking the Holy spirit to reveal to you God's will over your life

Holy Spirit and the fruit of that walk is overwhelmingly evident: A life full of joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control (Galatians 5:22 NIV).

"The Lord is my Shepherd."

Speaking God's Presence into Your Life

that reflects God and his principles. On many occasions, Paul urges the church to walk with God and not in the ways of the flesh. In Galatians 5: 17- 18 (NIV) He writes: So, I say walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that you are not to do whatever you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under and help you live accordingly. When you wake up in the morning ask the Holy spirit to take control of your day and he will! Every time that I relinquish control and ask the Holy Spirit to take over, he completely changes how I navigate through life 'situations. I find myself choosing patience over lamentation, He reminds to treat people with kindness, to love and serve, to be grateful and prayerful. Walking with God is a lifestyle that you can only achieve through the

Now that we understand what it means to walk with God, it's time to start experiencing it! God is always present and it possible to experience him every day. Start by speaking God's presence into all areas of your life, start declaring that God is with you, He is in your home, your health, wealth, relationships, He is with your children, He is at your work, He knows your debt. Ask the Holy spirit to take control over your decisions, attitude, discipline, your prayer life and your habits. Remind yourself of scriptures of the promises of God over your life. Recite psalms 23 (The Lord is my shepherd) and other scriptures that reinforce and increase your faith. Finally, be inspired by people who genuinely walk with God and be intentional about your walk with God.

It is important to remember that God is ever-present. You are not speaking God's presence into existence (He is always there), but rather reminding yourself to align/ tap into it. It is like jumping onto a moving a train, you can live your whole life on the platform, but this would not mean that the train isn't moving. You can also choose to jump on! Speaking and confessing God's presence into your life, is like jumping on and submitting your life to live under His guidance, having faith that He is at work in your life even if don't see it. It is also important to remember that the devil's ultimate goal is for you to live a life that is deprived of the presence of God, it has been his intention since the Garden of Eden and he has not stopped deceiving people out of the presence of God. Nothing can separate you from the love of God, but the devil can convince that you are not worthy of being in his presence. He will use sin and will cause distractions in your life in order to convince not to seek God's presence. Regarding sin, remember that Jesus Christ paid the ultimate price for you to approach God's throne of grace with confidence (Hebrews 4:16). There is no sin great enough to separate you from God's acceptance; in-fact you need to run toward and not away from God when you sin because His grace is enough to turn your worst sin around. We also have power over sin / power not to sin through the Holy spirit who grants it to us when we ask for it. Regarding distractions, be intentional about asking the Holy Spirit to grant you the required self-control and discipline. Remember, we can do all things through Christ who gives us strength (Philippians 4: 13).

In conclusion, I hope that these words have inspired you as much as they have inspired me to seek God more and to continue to walk with him by believing that he surrounds us wherever we go and by asking the Holy Spirit to guide us into the lifestyle of walking with God daily. May the Holy Spirit continue to establish our faith in Jesus Christ and edify our walk with God through his words. Amen.

We live in a time where we are most enlightened, educated and have the resources to live satisfied life's yet a lot of us live without hope. Our enlightenment fails in offering real solutions for many of the hopelessness we see in our world. This is because most of the issues that confront us have its source in the spiritual realms. As such, we need to be equipped to deal with the root causes instead of the symptoms. PROPHETIC ATMOSPHERE is designed not only to create an atmosphere conducive for possibilities but also empowers us to identify, disrupt and diffuse the enemies agendas; and enforce God's will in our lives, families and world. Remember there is nothing like impossibility in the 'Realm of Prophetic.'

If you want Jesus Christ to be your Lord and Personal Saviour...

You May Say This Prayer With faith;

Heavenly Father,

I come to you in prayer asking for the forgiveness of my sins. I confess with my mouth and believe with my heart that Jesus Christ is your son, And that He died on the Cross at Calvary that I might be forgiven and have eternal Life in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Father, I believe that Jesus rose from death and I ask you right now to come in to my life and be my personal Lord and Saviour. I repent of my sins and will worship you all the days of my Life.

Because your word is truth, I confess with my mouth that I am born again and cleansed by the Blood of Jesus!

In Jesus name I pray with thanksgiving.

AMEN
